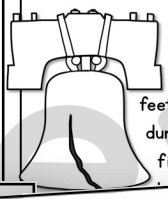
AMERICAN SYMBOLS Name:

The Statue of Liberty

The Statue of Liberty represents freedom. It is located on Liberty Island. It is 151 feet tall. It was a gift from France. The statue is also called Lady Liberty. There are 25 windows on Lady Liberty's crown. The statue is made of copper. It has turned green

AMERICAN SYMBOLS Name:

The Liberty Bell



The Liberty Bell is a huge bronze bell that stan for freedom. It is located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. It weighs 2,080 pounds! It is 3 feet tall. The bell cracked one day during a test ringing. The crack w fixed, but the bell cracked again

AMERICAN SYMBOLS Name:

Mount Rushmore

Mount Rushmore is a sculpture carved into the side of a mountain. It is located in South Dakota. The sculpture is of 4 American Presidents: George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt, and Abraham Lincoln. It is 60 feet tall!

AMERICAN SYMBOLS Name:

Air Force One

Air Force One is the name of any airplane that carrying the President. It is a symbol of the presidency. It has 3 floors. It can fly 15,000 fe higher than most airplanes! The kitchen can feed 100 people. There are 85 telephones on board. It can refuel while flying!

1. Who rides in Air Force One?

2. How much higher can it fly than most planes?

AMERICAN SYMBOLS Name:

Bald Eagle

The Bald eagle is the patriotic symbol of the United States. Bald eagles can weigh from 7 to 15 pounds. When they dive, they can fly as fast as 100 miles per hour! They can fly as high as high as 10,000 feet! They mak large nests called eyries. Bal eagles eat turtle, fish, ducks, and snakes.

1. How high can a bald eagle fly?

2. What are their nests called?

AMERICAN SYMBOLS Name:

The Lincoln Memorial

The Lincoln Memorial celebrates Abraham Lincoln. He was the 16th president of the United States. The memorial is located in Washington, D.C. It is made out of marble. If the statue of Lincoln could stand up, it would be 28 feet tall! Workers finished building it in 1922.

1. Who does the Lincoln Memorial celebrate?

2. Where is it located?

AMERICAN SYMBOLS Name:

The Jefferson Memorial

The Jefferson Memorial is located in Washington, D.C. The memorial was built for Thomas Jefferson He was the third president of the United States. The monument contains a statue of Thomas Jefferson. It is open to the public 24 hou a day! The steps of it ar made out of marble.

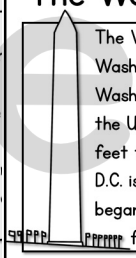
1. Where is the Jefferson Memorial located?

2. Who was the memorial built for?

3. What part of the

AMERICAN SYMBOLS Name:

The Washington Monumer



The Washington Monument is located in Washington D.C. It honors George Washington. He was the first president c the United States. The monument is 555 feet tall! No other building in Washington D.C. is allowed to be taller than it. Worker began building the monument in 1848. They finished in 1884.

1. Where is the Washington Monument located?

2. Who does the monument honor?

AMERICAN SYMBOLS Name:

The United States Flag

The United States flag is sometimes called Old Glory, the Star Spangled Banner, or the Stars and Stripes.. The stripes on the flag stand for the original 13 colonies. The stars on the flag represent the 50 states. The flag is always folded in a special way. The flag is a symbol of freedom.

1. What is the flag sometimes called?

on the flag represent?

n the flag represent?

© 2016 A Page Out of History

AMERICAN SYMBOLS Name:

The White House

The White House is located in Washington, D.C. Workers began building the White House in 1792 John Adams was the first president to live in th White House. There are 132 rooms in the White House! It used to be called the President's Palace. was set on fire during a war in 181

1. Where is the White House located?

2. Who was the first president to live there?

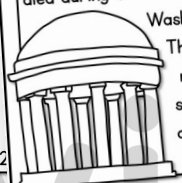
3. What did the White House used to be called?

© 2016 A Page Out of

AMERICAN SYMBOLS Name:

The World War I Memorial

The World War I Memorial honors soldiers who died during World War I. It is located in Washington, D.C. It was built in 1931. The memorial is 47 feet tall! It is made out of marble. 12 columns support the memorial. It contains a list of 26,000 soldiers who fought in the war.



1. Who does the World War I memorial honor?

2. Where is the memorial located?

3. What is the memorial made out of?

© 2016 A Page Out of History

Preview